

H.R.32.

134th Congress
First Session

IN THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES

OCTOBER 26, 2020

Mr. DARBY introduced, for himself, Mr. CLINTON, Mr. MILLER, Mr. GRAVES, Mr. KYOUKO, Mr. LIGHTWOOD;

A BILL

To clarify and establish a better and more organized system of executive departments.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled,

SECTION 101. SHORT TITLE.

- (a) IN GENERAL.—This act may be referred to as the “Organization of Executive Departments Act of 2020”.

SECTION 102. PROVISIONS.

- (a) CONSTRUCTION.—No part of this act shall be construed to impair the President’s right to appoint nine various cabinet officials as per subsection 6 of section 4 of the 28th Amendment.
- (b) REORGANIZATION RULES.—To conform with subsection 6 of section 4 of the 28th Amendment, a President shall, in accordance with 5 USC §903, introduce to the Congress within 24 hours of his or her Presidency reorganization plans regarding the various executive Departments. Such reorganization plans shall specifically lay out which departments are within other Departments, the conditions of various agencies within a Department, and the Secretarial position titles.

- (c) APPROVAL.—The Congress shall not need to approve a reorganization plan as per subsection (b) of this section for such a plan to go into effect.

SECTION 103. ENACTMENT.

- (a) This act shall go into effect immediately.
