

136TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 6

---

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES
DECEMBER 20, 2020

Mr. LOULOU and Ms. CHAN, (for themselves)

---

A BILL

To condemn the acts of 'The A Organization' as terrorist actions and provide for relief.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

TITLE I — SPECIFICATIONS

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE

- (a) SHORT TITLE — This Act may be cited as —
  - (i) the “Kentucky Counterterrorism Operations Management Act”.
  - (ii) the “Kentucky C.O.M. Act”.

SECTION 2. SEVERABILITY

- (a) SEVERABILITY — Should any provision of this Act be deemed invalid or unconstitutional for any reason in a court with relevant jurisdiction, the rest of the Act, and the application of the remaining provisions, shall not be affected.

SECTION 3. FINDINGS

(a) FINDINGS — Congress finds that —

- (i) On December 18th at 4:08 pmi Eastern, it was reported “A bomb recently detonated in downtown Louisville, KY just a few moments ago. The bomb injured four people and one person has been hospitalized. The damage is extensive, with multiple damaged buildings and shattered windows. Shortly after, a letter written by “The A Organization” was received by the Louisville Police Department, saying they have started "the end of your deeds". Reporters are now calling the group "The Second Unibombers". A full police investigation is underway.”
- (ii) On December 19th at 4:57 Eastern, it was reported “A series of bombings has just occurred. Two bombs around the state of Kentucky were recently detonated, along with two in Memphis, Tennessee. A total of 10 people have been injured, with 2 people killed. Multiple letters to state governments and police departments were received, all by "The A Organization". A 24-hour police patrol in the affected areas has been enacted, and some residents have indefinitely evacuated. Police still cannot identify who or what "The A Organization", and they are struggling to predict the next attack.”
- (iii) While further and more extensive legislation is necessary and must be worked on, this is an immediate first step.

SECTION 4. REPORT ON TERRORISM BY ‘THE A ORGANIZATION’

- (a) IN GENERAL — No later than 7 days after the enactment of this Act, the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall commence the creation of a report which shall be given to the President and the appropriate committees of Congress no later than 28 days after the commencement of the report.
- (b) CONTENT — The report shall contain —
  - (i) An assessment of the threats posed by ‘The A Organization’ in Kentucky, Tennessee and elsewhere.
  - (ii) Potential targets in Kentucky, Tennessee and elsewhere for ‘The A Organization’.
  - (iii) A safety plan to protect against terrorist attacks in Kentucky, Tennessee and elsewhere by ‘The A Organization’.
- (c) UPDATING — The Federal Bureau of Investigation shall update every 14 days the report with evolutions on the situations, points of content stated in subsection (b) of this Section and other matters they may deem pertaining to the issue.

SECTION 5. CONDEMNATION OF ACTS PERPETRATED

- (a) IN GENERAL — Congress formally condemns all acts perpetrated by, and in support of, ‘The A Organization’, and any other acts that may be perpetrated by them or any associate branches.
- (b) TERRORIST DESIGNATION — ‘The A Organization’ as an entity shall be declared a terrorist organisation organizing nefarious terrorist actions.
- (c) TERRORIST MEMBERS — Any person participating in terrorist activities in association with ‘The A Organization’ shall be deemed an active participant in the nefarious actions of ‘The A Organization’ and declared a terrorist.

SECTION 6. ENACTMENT

- (a) ENACTMENT — The provisions of this Act shall come into force immediately upon passage.
