

H.CON.RES. 1

IN THE CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES

February 14th, 2023

Mr. Posting (for himself) introduced the following bill;

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Whereas on February 12, 2023, a motion to add to the congressional record an image depicting an apparent invasion of Canada by the United States passed by a supermajority margin;

Whereas the following day a Canadian member of parliament introduced to the floor a similar image depicting a Canadian invasion of the United States;

Whereas Canada and the United States are NATO allies and have had a strong relationship in all matters in the past;

Whereas there is no apparent or real reason for the United States and Canada to carry any hostilities towards one another;

Whereas any such invasion is not supported by any but the furthest fringe of both nations' government and public;

Whereas positive relations between the United States and Canada are of the utmost importance to the security and well-being of both nations;

Resolved by the House of Representatives (and the Senate concurring), That Congress—

- (1) Condemns the introduction to the record of an image depicting an apparent invasion of Canada on February 12, 2023;

- (2) Condemns the introduction by a Canadian member of Parliament to the floor depicting an apparent invasion of Canada on February 13, 2023;
- (3) Condemns any future calls for war or invasion of either nation by any member of either nation's government;
- (4) Reaffirms that relations between the United States and Canada are strong and that the United States has no intention of any war;
- (5) Reaffirms that Congress will oppose any hostile action taken by either nation's executive branch toward the other.
