

151ST CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 6

To require the declassification of certain investigative documents concerning foreign support for the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 21, 2022

Mr. NOAH (for himself) introduced the following bill;

A BILL

To require the declassification of certain investigative documents concerning foreign support for the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “September 11 Transparency Act”.

SEC. 2. REPORT TO CONGRESS; DECLASSIFICATION AND PUBLICATION OF INFORMATION WITH ACCOMPANYING REPORT.

- (a) REPORT.—The Director of National Intelligence, the Attorney General, and the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency shall submit a detailed report to Congress containing—

- (i) the subfile investigation described in chapter V of the 2015 Final Report of the Congressionally-directed 9/11 Review Commission;
 - (ii) any subfile or separate investigation of any subject of the subfile investigation described in paragraph (i);
 - (iii) any counterintelligence investigation involving any subject of the subfile investigation described in paragraph (i);
 - (iv) any PENTTBOM records referring or relating to any subject of the subfile investigation described in paragraph (i); and
 - (v) the April 2016 Review Report concerning the subfile investigation described in paragraph (i).
- (b) DECLASSIFICATION AND PUBLICATION.—Not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Director of National Intelligence, the Attorney General, and the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency shall—
- (i) make available to the public the report under subsection (a): Provided, That the Director of National Intelligence, the Attorney General, and the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency may elect to not release any information to the public that would, by its release, significantly jeopardize national security, and may, in that case, redact such information from the public version of the report; and
 - (ii) submit to the House Committee on House, Judicial, and Constitutional Affairs a report on the report released under paragraph (i), including a justification for each decision not to declassify a document, record, or information pursuant to such reviews.
